Congress has adjourned for thirty days. The country will be safe for a short breathing spell anyway.

5000 bodies of U. S. soldiers who died in France have arrived at New York and the vessel carrying them was partially destroyed by fire in the harbor.

Kentucky stands fifth in coal production in the last six months. At present prices coal is being almost given away. Very few operators are getting any profit.

The dream of getting the schools, the prisons and the judicial offices out of politics is ideal, but a long way off. When there is a change of administrations the new party kicks all the fellows of the old party out of office and puts in men of its political complexion; then mounts the rostrum and says, "we have taken the offices out of politics." It is always "the other fellow" who is a mean politician.

GLENWOOD

The Sunday school institute closed here Friday afternoon. They found it to be very interesting and five completed the course. They will be receiving their diplomas in a few weeks. The meeting and baptizing at Trinity on last Sunday was largely attended.

W. A. Cooksey, wife and son spent Sunday with Mrs. Nancy Cooksey. Mrs. Hattie Birch and two sons of Columbus, Ohio, are the guests of L. D. Webb and family this week.

Aunt Frances Adkins, who has been very sick for some time, is not any better at this writing.

D. D. Cooksey made his regular trip to Willard Sunday.

A very interesting sermon was delivered here Sunday by Rev. R. A. Kelly, the noted baritone soloist. This is his last sermon in these parts, as he soon returns to the Baptist Seminary at Louisville.

Sam Webb, wife and little son spent Sunday with Con Lester and family.

R. G. Johnson left Saturday for Camp Knox where he will receive training with the Lawrence county cavalry.

Wm. Howell and family attended church at Trinity Sunday.

Jerry Bowling is very low at this writing with blood poison. He isn't expected to recover.

Sylvester Wood spent the week-end with August French at Vessie.

Benjamin Biggs was on our streets Monday.

The Sacred Ballot.

In the light of our experience, covering three score years and five: If you want a free expression, In which the people strive To choose a tried and trusted servant, Sober, competent and wise, You must steer clear of breakers, Unfruitful and merchandise.

Vote for none but sober men, Honest, efficient, tried and true; Uphold your home and its environs, Don't do an act you'd rue; All law is based on God's commands, And on them rely; He who measures not up to them, Pass him up without a try.

History's full of dire examples, Of incompetency's rule, "You can fool some of the people, All of them you cannot fool;" "Charles First had his Cromwell" Was not spoken in vain, Honest men must rule with honor If they would our trust obtain.

Don't give way to friends' persuasions, Fortify temptation's lure, Office or political favor, Let them not your vote insure, It's your capital, stock and store, Character, principle, and more Than all your friends can give you. Keep it sacred EVERMORE.

It's the heritage of freedom, Ransomed from a tyrant foe, Hold it free from trade or barter, Sell all else; don't let it go, Guaranteed you by "Old Glory" And the Fundamental Law, Keep it sacred and unspotted, Pure, immune, without a flaw.

It's your Union perfected, Your guarantee of peace, It's your home's defender, Oppression's swift release, It's your country's welfare, Posterity's prop and stay; Brings blessings to the future, In every sort of way.

—M. G. CLAY.

Buttermilk Better Than Mash For Hens

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 24.—Buttermilk is more valuable for egg production than meat scrap and if available in plentiful quantities can completely replace the usual mash fed to hens, according to results of an experiment conducted by the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station which have just been announced. Sour skim-milk is equally as valuable in the ration of the laying hen as buttermilk according to J. H. Martin, under whose direction the test was made.

Three pens of 20 White Wyandottes each, of the same age and housed under identical conditions, were used in the experiment. All pens were fed the same grain ration consisting of 70 pounds of cracked corn and 30 pounds of oats. One pen was fed a dry mash made up of 20 pounds each of corn meal, ground oats, bran, shorts and meat scraps in addition to the grain ration; the second pen was fed the same mash, with the exception of the meat scrap, in addition to the grain and had buttermilk been available at all times while the third pen received nothing but buttermilk in addition to the grain.

Results obtained up to August 1 showed that the first pen had produced 1,662 eggs from November 1, the second pen had produced 2,060 eggs during the same period of time and the third had produced 2,290 eggs or 728 more than the first pen and 330 more than the second.

NOTICE.

The Street Improvement Committee of the City Council, Louisa, Ky., will meet at the city building Friday, Sept. 2, 1921, at 8 o'clock a. m., and will from this point proceed to inspect completed street paving improvement of Franklin street from Jefferson to Boone street, cost as shown by City Engineer's report of estimate $5,662 per front foot and 8.92 per cent (about 50c per foot) additional for storm sewer.

Owners of property liable for the cost of the improvement and the contractor, J. L. Richmond, may appear and be heard before said Street Improvement Committee as to whether the work has been done and the cost thereof estimated in accordance with plans and specifications and the contract therefor. Any protest against the acceptance of the improvement or the estimate of the cost thereof must be in writing.

Chairman S. I. C.

Mrs. Ann Burns Dies in Lebanon, Virginia

The following is from the Lebanon, (Va.) News: On Tuesday night of last week, Mrs. Ann Burns died. She was the wife of the late H. G. Burns and the mother of Judge Wm. E. Burns, Attorney Clarence C. Burns, Dr. O. S. Burns, Mrs. T. A. Hendricks, and Harry L. Burns, all of whom were at her bedside except the last named, and he had just recently been here and found his mother so much improved that he returned to his home in Norfolk.

Mrs. Burns had been ill for a few days and at one time it was thought that she would not live, and Judge Burns was called home from Buchanan court, but she improved and it was thought that she would recover and she had so far recovered that her sudden death was a surprise to every one. Mrs. Burns would have been eighty-four years of age at her next birthday but was young in appearance and spirit, and was cheerful and happy during the last hours of her life.

Mrs. Burns was the daughter of the Rev. Elkanah Johnson, an elder of the Methodist Church, South, and was born in Shelby county, Kentucky. Mrs. Burns was one of the sweetest characters in our town and was beloved by all classes of people. She was a devoted Christian and a member of the Methodist Church, South.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist Church by Revs. J. T. Guy, Frank H. Fuller and C. E. Steel of the Elk Garden Church, on Wednesday evening and she was laid to rest in the old cemetery on the hill.

Mrs. Burns enjoyed a peaceful and happy old age, surrounded by her children—always and honored sons, a dutiful and affectionate daughter and peace to her ashes.

CHURCH COLUMN

M. E. CHURCH SOUTH. The Young People's Missionary Society will meet Saturday afternoon in the church.

Sunday School 9:15 a. m. Morning service 10:30. Union services at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Dr. Anderson of the Baptist Church will preach. Prayer meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m. Choir practice Friday 6 o'clock. JAS. D. BELL, Pastor

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH. The union services were held at our church on last Sunday evening and a large congregation was present. The sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Bell, pastor of the M. E. Church South. It was practical, eloquent and splendidly delivered. Dr. Bell is beyond question one of the best preachers that Louisa has ever had. The music by the choir and the special selection by the quartet added much to the service. The union services will be held next Sunday night at the M. E. Church South and Dr. Charles Fox Anderson will deliver the address.

The public is most cordially invited to hear Rev. Vernon I. Masters, D.D., LL.D., at the Baptist Church next Sunday morning. Dr. Masters is an able speaker and also an author of national reputation. He will be with us only at our morning worship as he speaks at Ashland in the evening.

Our Sunday School will decide next Sunday morning on time and place for the picnic. All who intend to go with us on this picnic are urged to be present next Sunday.

The following delegates and alternates have been selected to represent our church at our Annual District Association, which meets at Grayson, Ky., on Sept. 7th: Miss Sue Bromley, C. E. Bromley, Andrew See, John P. Garlin and W. H. Adams.

Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Morning worship 10:30 a. m. No evening services at this church. Prayer meeting and choir practice Wednesday night 7:30. L. F. WELLMAN, Reporter.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH. Sunday School 9:30 a. m. No evening services at this church. Prayer meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m.

OUR LANGUAGE. A few of the difficulties of the English language are chronicled below: A flock of ships is called a fleet. A fleet of sheep is called a flock. A flock of girls is called a bevy. A bevy of wolves is called a pack. A pack of thieves is called a gang. A gang of angels is called a host. A host of porpoise is called a shoal. A shoal of cattle is called a herd. A herd of children is called a troop. A troop of partridges is called a covey. A covey of beauties is called a bevy. A galaxy of ruffians is called a horde. A horde of rubbish is called a heap. A heap of oxen is called a drove. A drove of blackbirds is called a mob. A mob of whales is called a school. A school of worshippers is called a congregation.—Selected.
